PRESS STATEMENT MALAYSIAN ANTI- CORRUPTION COMMISSION

'Walk Stop Talk: Six Hours Quarter Million Messages' Spread Anti-Corruption Messages Through Future Educators

THE Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) in collaboration with the Institute of Teacher Education (IPGM) and the Kuala Lumpur City Hall (DBKL) had organized the 'Walk Stop Talk: Six Hours Quarter Million Messages' event to spread corruption prevention message to the general public in country.

A total of 1,000 participants including MACC officers and educators from 27 IPGM campuses will move simultaneously to 262 locations across the country beginning at 9 am to 3 pm to meet the public and distribute 250,000 brochures with anti-corruption messages and get the public's signatures to support the initiative to fight against corruption.

In order to record the success of this program in The Malaysia Book of Record and to receive the certification, the organizer should get a quarter million signatures of the community to fight against corruption.

The closing ceremony of the 'Walk Stop Talk: Six Hours Quarter Million Messages' program was completed by the Deputy Prime Minister, Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail, accompanied by MACC Chief Commissioner, Dato' Sri Mohd. Shukri Abdull at the Kuala Lumpur City Hall Field (DBKL), today.

This event aimed to build collaboration between MACC and educators who were seen as the most influential agent to deliver anti-corruption messages.

This event plays an important role to train the trainee teachers to approach the community and educate them to collaborate with MACC to fight corruption.

In attendance were the Minister of Federal Territories, YB Khalid Abd. Samad; the Mayor of Kuala Lumpur, Tan Sri Mhd. Amin Nordin Abd. Aziz; MACC Deputy Chief Commissioner (Operations), Dato' Sri Azam Baki; MACC Deputy Chief Commissioner (Prevention), Dato' Shamshun Baharin Mohd Jamil; IPGM Director of Student Affairs & External Relations Sector, Tengku Adli Raja Omar and senior officers from MACC and IPGM.
