PRESS STATEMENT MALAYSIAN ANTI- CORRUPTION COMMISSION

MACC Denies Allegation of Reshuffling Involving Senior Officers

FOLLOWING the allegation by a local newspaper that the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) will be reshuffled involving several senior officials in the investigation and intelligence division to other agencies, MACC would like to assert that the allegation is completely false.

The report is considered as an irresponsible act because there is no authentic source and it is believed only based on the information transmitted and just to sensationalize the news.

This report can cause anxiety among MACC officers and may be twisted and thus tarnish the image of MACC and raise public doubts.

In this regard, MACC requested that the media obtain authentic information in advance from the Commission before reporting the news to the public.

The act of reporting irresponsible news can cause confusion among the community and the agencies involved.
