MACC Launches Mandarin Language Portal

THE Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission today officially launched a Mandarin language web portal to fulfil the Chinese community's needs in obtaining information on corruption prevention and those related to the commission.

The portal was launched by Deputy Chief Commissioner (Prevention), Dato' Sri Shamshun Baharin Mohd Jamil at the MACC headquarters in Putrajaya.

MACC hopes that this latest facility will increase the confidence and knowledge of the Chinese community on MACC and the anti-corruption agenda, in addition to disseminating educational messages on corruption prevention.

The portal is accessible at this link <https://www.sprm.gov.my/cn/>
